A U S T R A L I A

A MESSAGE FROM HER EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA, MS QUENTIN BRYCE AC.

Our Australian honours and awards celebrate our most cherished values. They help us to define and elevate what it means to be Australian, to be fully engaged in our democracy.

By recognising outstanding contribution and achievement, they show us the rewards of giving to others, of respect for one another, of responsibility and citizenship.

They emblazon our deeply held belief in the virtues of civility, compassion, dedication, courage and tenacity: the things that shape and strengthen our harmonious society.

Across a broad range of professional, public and community service, the recipients of these accolades are our truest guides to what matters most, and our guarantee of ensuring its continuance through outward evolution and change.

I want to give my warm praise and sincere gratitude to all recipients of honours and awards, past and present, for your extraordinarily rich and generous offerings.

ON BEHALF OF ALL AUSTRALIANS, I SAY THANK YOU AND WELL DONE.

INTRODUCTION

The Order of Australia is the pre-eminent way Australians recognise achievements and service of their fellow citizens. In the Australian honours system appointments to and awards in the Order of Australia confer recognition for outstanding achievement and service.

The Governor-General is Chancellor of the Order and is charged with its administration and the appointment of its Secretary. The Official Secretary to the Governor-General is the Secretary of the Order.

Upon publication of their award, recipients are entitled to have the appropriate post-nominals placed after their name on all occasions when the use of such letters is customary.

HISTORY

The Order of Australia, instituted by Her Majesty The Queen on 14 February 1975, was established as “an Australian society of honour for the purpose of according recognition to Australian citizens and other persons for achievement or for meritorious service”.

The Order comprised of a Civil Division and a Military Division, with three levels in each, Companion, Officer and Member. On 24 May 1976 The Queen, on the advice of the Prime Minister, changed the name of the Civil Division to General Division and added two further levels of award—a Knight and Dame in the General Division, each having equal status, and ranking above the Companion; and a Medal of the Order in both the General Division and Military Division ranking below the Member.

Her Majesty The Queen approved further amendments to the Constitution of the Order on 3 March 1986 which removed the Knight and Dame level in the General Division, but without prejudice to existing appointments.

GENERAL DIVISION

Australian citizens are eligible to receive awards in the General Division. Nominations may be made by any person or organisation to the Australian Honours and Awards Secretariat at Government House, Canberra.

All nominations are researched by the Secretariat before submission to the Council for the Order of Australia which is a body established under the Constitution of the Order and is representative of the Australian community. The Council meets twice yearly and considers all nominations before making recommendations for awards to the Governor-General as Chancellor. The Chancellor lays the approved recommendations before The Sovereign.

Awards in the Order of Australia are publicly announced on Australia Day (26 January) and The Queen’s Birthday public holiday (June).

Criteria for the levels are as follows:

- Appointments as Companions are made for eminent achievement and merit of the highest degree in service to Australia or to humanity at large.
- Appointments as Officers are made for distinguished service of a high degree to Australia or to humanity at large.
- Appointments as Members may be made for service in a particular locality or field of activity or to a particular group.
- Awards of the Medal of the Order may be made for service worthy of particular recognition.

People who are not Australian citizens can also be recognised by awards in the Order of Australia. These are honorary awards and are processed by the Awards and Culture Branch of the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet. The Prime Minister recommends these awards to the Governor-General. The post-nominals and insignia are the same as for the General Division.

Excluding honorary appointments, no more than 30 Companions, 125 Officers and 300 Members shall be appointed in any calendar year. There is no quota limitation on awards of the Medal of the Order.

MILITARY DIVISION

Members of the Australian Defence Force are eligible to receive awards in the Order of Australia in the Military Division. Members of the armed forces of a country other than Australia are eligible for honorary awards in the Order of Australia in the Military Division.

Nominations for awards in the Military Division of the Order are made to the Governor-General as Chancellor on the recommendation of the Minister for Defence. The Chancellor lays the approved recommendations before The Sovereign.

Criteria for the levels are as follows:

- Appointments as Companions are made for eminent service in duties of great responsibility.
- Appointments as Officers are made for distinguished service in responsible positions.
- Appointments as Members may be made for exceptional service or performance of duty.
- Awards of the Medal of the Order may be made for meritorious service or performance of duty.

In any calendar year the number of appointments may not exceed one-tenth of one percent of the average number of persons who were members of the Defence Force on each day of the immediately preceding year.

INSIGNIA DESIGN

THE DESIGN FOR THE INSIGNIA WAS CONCEIVED BY MR STUART DEVLIN AO CMG IN 1976. USING THE LIVERY COLOURS OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA COAT OF ARMS—GOLD AND ROYAL BLUE—HE TRANSLATED AN INDIVIDUAL BALL OF WATTLE BLOSSOM INTO A SIMPLE CONVEX GOLDEN DISC WITH A RICH TEXTURE OF BEADS AND RADIATING LINES ACCENTUATING A RING OF BLUE ENAMEL REPRESENTING THE SURROUNDING SEA. THE DISC IS SURMOUNTED BY AN ENAMELLED CROWN SIGNIFYING THE POSITION OF THE SOVEREIGN AS HEAD OF THE ORDER. THE BLUE AND GOLD THEME IS CONTINUED IN THE RIBBON.

VARIOUS INSIGNIA ARE ILLUSTRATED IN DIFFERENT STYLES. THE ACTUAL PIECES FOR THE TWO DIVISIONS OF THE ORDER ARE IDENTICAL: TO DISTINGUISH BETWEEN THE DIVISIONS, THE RIBBON FOR THE MILITARY DIVISION HAS A NARROW GOLD BAND ON EACH EDGE. THE STYLE OF MOUNTING MAY VARY ACCORDING TO THE WISHES OF THE RECIPIENTS.
